To Our Friends

We are being constantly reminded by governmental agencies, newspapers and magazine articles about the importance of food in winning the war.

Seeds will produce this food. Farmers, Market Growers and Home Gardeners are increasing their plantings of vegetables to insure our own supply, as well as to produce a surplus that can be used to feed our Allies. Seeds will be in greater demand in 1944 than ever before.

Much of our usual foods are being rationed so that people are turning, more and more, to fresh vegetables. The Home Gardener will look to the Market Grower for those vegetables that are not easily grown in the home garden. It is up to the Market Grower to supply that demand. Melons can be produced by the commercial grower much easier than in the home garden. This past season there was not enough good cantaloupes to supply the demand. There will be a heavy demand for them this coming season. Be prepared to supply that demand.

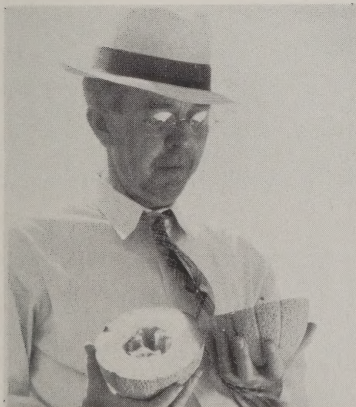

Seed crops were short again this past season and supplies will again be less than the demand. Transportation facilities are overtaxed. Place your orders early and allow plenty of time for the seeds to reach you. Have your seeds on hand before time to plant.

Plant the very best seeds obtainable and make every seed count. Use plenty of seed but don't waste it. Commercial growers are using Garwood's Quality Seeds. They know from experience that they can depend on its High Germination, High Quality and Years of Breeding to produce Better Crops. You will be well satisfied when you use Garwood's Seeds.

At the time that this catalog went to press there had been no ceiling prices set on our seeds. However, should any such ceiling prices be set lower than our catalog prices we will, of course, bring our prices in line with the ceiling prices set by the government.

Produce Food for Victory.

POWDERY MILDEW

While the Powdery Mildew Resistant Cantaloupe strains were developed primarily to serve the Imperial Valley in fighting the mildew, on account of their excellent qualities, they are displacing other varieties in many cantaloupe shipping sections. The cantaloupe growers of Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and much of Texas are fast turning to these strains, although they are not affected with mildew in those states.

One reason for this popularity is the way the cantaloupe will stand long distance shipping. Picked on a full slip in California, they arrive on the Eastern Seaboard markets in prime eating condition.

Many strains have been developed but I have selected those which have a distinct place in the trade. I grow and list the No. 1 and No. 8 for those growers wanting an extra large size melon. The No. 50 and No. 50-13 are for growers wanting a somewhat smaller size. The No. 45 and D-2 are the standard sizes, the varieties that the California and Arizona growers use for main crop.

Mildew Resistant No. 45 Cantaloupe

RESISTANT D-2 88 days. This new Mildew Resistant strain was developed from the No. 45, for use in the Imperial Valley. It is immune to some forms of mildew that had attacked other varieties. The D-2 is a heavy yielder and produces melons slightly larger than the No. 45. The net is heavier and rougher than most of the other strains. The flesh is deep salmon, the eating and shipping qualities are excellent—as are all other mildew resistant strains.

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 25c; ¼ lb. 75c; ½ lb. $1.30; 1 lb. $2.25; 2 lbs. $4.25; 5 lbs. $9.75; 10 lbs. $18.00.

RESISTANT NO. 45 . . . 88 days. The standard shipping melon, somewhat oblong, well netted and very solid fleshed. The flesh color is deep salmon, sweet flavored and firmer than most other cantaloupes. The seed cavity is compact and well filled, making it hold up well in shipping. Picked on a full slip it will carry for long distances. Size 6½ by 6 inches they pack a uniform 12 crate.

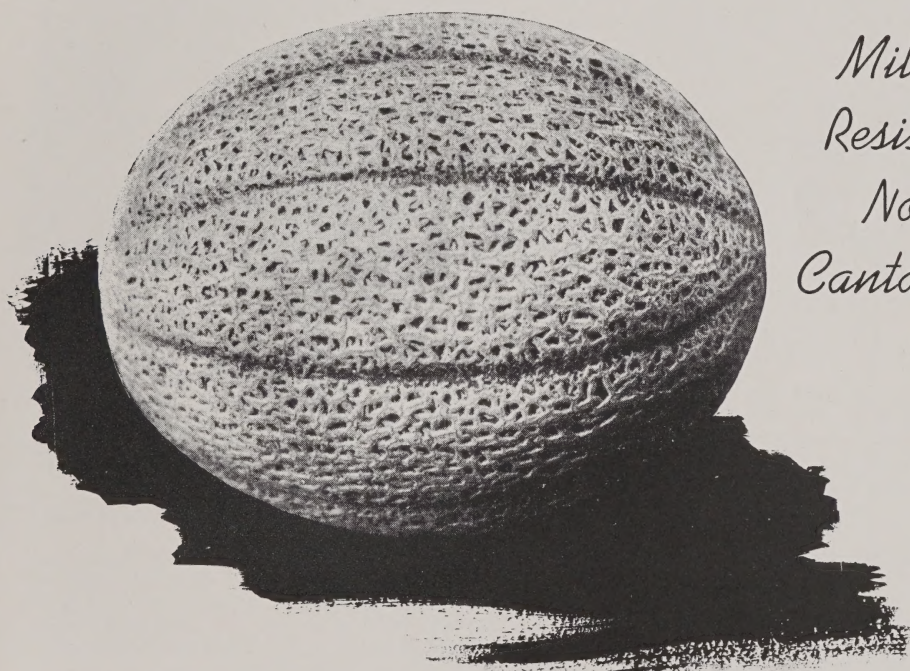

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 20c; ¼ lb. 65c; ½ lb. $1.20; 1 lb. $2.00; 2 lbs. $3.75; 5 lbs. $8.75; 10 lbs. $16.00.

RESISTANT MELONS

Cantaloupes

RESISTANT NO. 1 . . . 88 days. A very large melon, 7 by 6½ inches, well netted and oval in shape. The salmon flesh is thick and sweet with a small, compact seed cavity. Vines are vigorous and prolific yielders. Matures a little later than the Hale's Best varieties. Packs 9 to the jumbo flat crate. Fine for market. Prices Prepaid: Oz. 15c; ¼ lb. 45c; ½ lb. 80c; 1 lb. $1.50; 2 lbs. $2.80; 5 lbs. $6.50; 10 lbs. $12.00.

RESISTANT NO. 8 . . . 88 days. This melon is popular everywhere because of its size, prolificness and hardness. The quality is good and will stand rough shipping. Having a fine exterior appearance the No. 8 does not run uniform in size, a feature that recommends it to the market grower. Well netted with thick, sweet, firm salmon flesh and a small seed cavity. The No. 8 will produce you a heavy crop of large, quality melons; average 7 by 6½ inches in size. Prices Prepaid: Oz. 15c; ¼ lb. 45c; ½ lb. 80c; 1 lb. $1.50; 2 lbs. $2.80; 5 lbs. $6.50; 10 lbs. $12.00.

*Mildew
Resistant

Heavily netted they show some stripe. Flesh good salmon color, firm texture with medium seed cavity. A fine shipping variety.

RESISTANT NO. 50-13 . . . 88 days. A selection from the No. 50 this melon will run more uniform in size, packing 15 to the standard flat. Having a heavy net and prominent stripe they are salmon fleshed, very firm and of excellent flavor. Heavy producers; this variety is a fine melon for any market.

HALE'S BEST CANTALOUPE

When the HALE'S BEST CANTALOUPE was introduced, back in 1924, it gained instant popularity—which it still holds. The original Hale's Best produced some very large, as well as medium size melons. By careful selection and breeding we have produced three outstanding strains which, I am sure, will fill your every need. We describe below our NEW EARLY, which is a Jumbo strain; our No. 36 is a Standard size melon while the No. 936 is the cream of Hale's Best strains for size, uniformity and packing.

*The 3 Outstanding
Hale's Best
Cantaloupes*

NEW EARLY HALE'S BEST . . . Our Improved Jumbo Strain, 85 days. This Jumbo selection is so large that they are more adapted for roadside sale than for crating. They will average about $4\frac{1}{2}$ pounds and would pack 9 or less to the jumbo flat crate. A very uniform type having a distinct stripe running from the stem to blossom end. Measuring $6\frac{1}{2}$ by 6 inches they are well netted between the distinct sutures, with practically no ribs. The flesh is thick, deep salmon, sweet flavored and of the finest eating qualities.

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 20c; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. 65c; $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. \$1.20; 1 lb. \$2.00; 2 lbs. \$3.75; 5 lbs. \$8.75; 10 lbs. \$16.00.

HALE'S BEST NO. 36 . . . 85 days. Since introduction in 1931 this variety has continued to be one of the leading strains for the market grower. So uniform in size and shape, measuring $5\frac{1}{2}$ by 6 inches and packing 12 to the jumbo flat crate, there is no losses from off sizes. Very solidly netted, no ribs, and little if any sutures. The flesh is deep, very fine grained, rich, spicy and a deep salmon color. An excellent, uniform strain of Hale's Best for any requirement.

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 20c; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. 65c; $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. \$1.20; 1 lb. \$2.00; 2 lbs. \$3.75; 5 lbs. \$8.75; 10 lbs. \$16.00.

HALE'S BEST NO. 936 . . . 85 days. Selected from the No. 36 this melon is the most uniform of all the Hale's Best strains. While many firms list this variety under various names I have yet to see a better Hale's Best strain than our No. 936. Our planting stocks are taken from the very earliest of the crown-set melons, from heavy producing plants. The melons are then selected for their uniformity in size, shape, netting and interior qualities. In this way I am able to keep this strain up to the standard that I have set for a PERFECT HALE'S BEST. Slightly larger than the No. 36 the No. 936 carried a perfect net; has no sectors and runs to even Jumbo sizes. The vines are very hardy and vigorous, producing a crop of perfectly uniform melons. Measuring 6 by $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches they will pack 12 melons to the jumbo crate. The flesh is a rich salmon, very thick and with a very small seed cavity. One of the principal characteristics of the No. 936 is its uniformity, and high percentage of salable melons.

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 20c; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. 65c; $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. \$1.20; 1 lb. \$2.00; 2 lbs. \$3.75; 5 lbs. \$8.75; 10 lbs. \$16.00.

Cantaloupes

NEW IDEAL . . . 85 days. We originated this very select strain several years ago by crossing our Perfected Perfecto with an excellent strain of Hale's Best. The result is an early cantaloupe with the qualities of the later Perfected Perfecto. We have continued our work toward improving this strain until, today we have an Ideal cantaloupe for the shipper or market grower. While we class this melon with the Hale's Best in time of maturity, we have found ripe melons in our fields 80 days from time of planting. Many large growers tell us that the New Ideal is the earliest, the most uniform and the best quality cantaloupe of its class.

The vines of the New Ideal are of medium growth but very vigorous and healthy. A very prolific producer with the first set unusually heavy. In size these melons run mostly jumbo 12's to the flat crate. They are very uniform in size and oval in shape, covered with a solid, well developed netting. The flesh is similar to the Perfected Perfecto; small seed cavity, a very deep orange-salmon color, thick meat, very firm and fine grained.

We strongly recommend that you give this fine cantaloupe a trial. We feel sure that you will be well pleased with it for market or home use.

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 20c; ¼ lb. 65c; ½ lb. $1.20; 1 lb. $2.00; 2 lbs. $3.75; 5 lbs. $8.75; 10 lbs. $16.00.

A fine basket of Our Perfected Perfecto

PERFECTED PERFECTO . . . 90 days. Since we introduced this high quality melon, back in 1933, we have continued to keep it the finest eating melon on the market. While later than some other melons it cannot be surpassed for the late market. It should be spaced farther apart than most cantaloupes on account of its extra strong, vigorous growth. It is highly resistant to disease and rust. The Perfected Perfecto is nearly round in shape, measuring 6 by 5½ inches, and packs 12 to 15 to the jumbo flat crate. The netting is very fine and closely laced, entirely covering the melon. Flesh is very thick, rich orange-salmon in color and edible to the rind. The seed cavity is very small and the seeds are tightly packed. A wonderful cantaloupe for local or long distance shipping.

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 20c; ¼ lb. 65c; ½ lb. $1.20; 1 lb. $2.00; 2 lbs. $3.75; 5 lbs. $8.75; 10 lbs. $16.00.

Onions

*Onion Seed Supply is Very Short
Place Orders
Early*

The Onion Seed Crop was very short this past season. I advise placing your orders early.

The Rocky Ford district is one of the important onion producing sections of the U. S. Because of the importance of onions to this section, great care and attention is given to the strain of seed used. Fully 80% of the seed planted here is from this strain. Onions from our seed will average 2½ to 3 inches in diameter, with many measuring 4 to 5 inches. Usual expectations here are for 1000 to 1500 crates to the acre. Our crates weigh 42 to 45 lbs. each. We plant in drills and use from 2 to 2½ pounds of seed per acre.

Our seed bulbs are selected for uniform size, color and keeping ability. Many of the onions raised here go into storage in September and are not taken out until April, they must be good keepers to hold that long.

YELLOW SWEET SPANISH (Utah or Winegar Strain) The bulbs are large and globe shaped, having 4 or 5 heavy golden-brown outside skins. The flesh is white and of a mild pleasant flavor. The superiority of our strain is its deep color, excellent keeping ability, thick skin, uniformity and trueness to type. Top growth is very vigorous and more resistant to thrip than most other strains.

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 85c; ¼ lb. $2.75; 1 lb. $9.50.

WHITE SWEET SPANISH IMPROVED This is the finest of the white strains. It will produce very large, globe shaped, white onions of very mild flavor. While a fairly heavy yielder and keeper it will not compare with the Yellow variety. The higher market price received for the White onions will, in most cases, offset the difference in yield.

Prices Prepaid: Oz. 85c; ¼ lb. $2.75; 1 lb. $9.50.
